VITA

BIO:

Dr. Kaufman was a national champion bicycle racer in 1987 and teammate of Chann McRea, Lance Armstrong, Jacob S. Hacker (political scientist), Bobby Julich, and George Hincapie in 1989. He became interested in psychology after being exposed to sport psychology while attending training camps at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, CO. He did his undergraduate work at the University of New Mexico and did his graduate training at the University of Oregon. He is board certified by both the American Board of Professional Neuropsychology and the American Board of Pediatric Neuropsychology. Dr. Kaufman is a Clinical Assistant Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in El Paso, TX and has been a co-author on multiple peer-reviewed publications, although he currently focuses the majority of his time running a clinical and forensic neuropsychology practice at The Center for Neuropsychological Studies in Las Cruces, NM.
